Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever

January 2007 Newsletter

Issue Date: January 1, 2007

Subject of the Month

"And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." [II Corinthians 12:9]

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:" [John 1:12]

"But as long as it's THUS SAITH THE LORD, that don't matter to me what anybody says. It takes the power of Christ to change a man. It takes the power of Christ to keep a man." [The Identified Masterpiece Of God, YUMA AZ, 64-1205]

"The case is, with us, that, not that we are too weak, the case is we're too strong. We're just too strong. That's all. The thing of it is we're too strong-headed. That's right. We're too strong in our head. We know too much. God wants to get that out of us. That's right. We're too strong; we're too strong to yield to Him." [Perfect Strength By Perfect Weakness, JEFF IN, 61-1119]

"God's strategy is to take empty human vessels and shake the world with them. That's what we need today, is the empty vessels (Yes, sir.) so God can fill them up. God cannot use them as long as they're already filled up. If you're full of theological training, God can't use you. God's got to have empty vessels so He can fill them." [Perfect Strength By Perfect Weakness, JEFF IN, 61-1119]

"And David was just a man like all of us, that he had his ups-and-downs, and his differences. And he'd been very much in trouble. God has not promised to go through life, any believer to go through without troubles. But He has promised grace sufficient to take care of these troubles. That's what thrills my heart, is to know that His grace is sufficient. All of our depths, and troubles, and frustrations, yet God has promised to see us through. That's just as much as we could ask of Him, knowing that He knows the road. As Joshua said to Israel, "You have not traveled this a way before. We haven't traveled it." So He knows the way and can point it out." [Thinking On Our Way, CLEVELAND TN, 59-0706]

"If you notice in the Bible, it's always those who are trying to get away from it that God uses. As long as a man--wants to do something and thinks he's got enough ability he can put the job over, God could never use that man. Look at Moses running; look at Paul running, and the rest of them trying to get away from it. I said, "Don't seek nothing. God's got anything for you He'll give it to you." See? "And just let Him take care of that." Instead of trying to be great, we ought to be trying--trying to find out how little we can get. See? Then God can use us. [Perfect Strength By Perfect

Weakness, JEFF IN, 61-1119]

“Notice that it takes the weakest and the rejected, and practically every hero God ever had on the front line was that type of person. A person that was rejected, a person that thought he was insufficient, a person that had no ability at all, then that person's just in good shape so God can start using them. That's right. When they feel like that they can't, they haven't got nothing, that's when God can take ahold of them and do something with them. See? But when we are thinking that we're able to do it, then God can't use us because we're wanting to do it ourselves.” [Perfect Strength By Perfect Weakness, JEFF IN, 61-1119]

“No ability, I don't care whose it is, will never be usable in the sight of God. God has to get all of our abilities out of us before He can achieve His purpose. If He's got something for us to do, and as long as we feel that we're doing a pretty good job out of it, then we'll never be able to be used of God.” [Perfect Strength By Perfect Weakness, JEFF IN, 61-1119]

“Some people, as soon as they become Christians, they become arrogant, indifferent (That's right.) when they're just taking a vice versa the path. They're going backwards instead of forward. More you can get out of yourself, more room you've got for the Holy Spirit to come in. Like Elijah told Jehoshaphat and them, said, "Dig this place full of ditches. Deeper you dig, the more room you're going to have for water." And the more of our own selves, of the--the own rubbish of our own abilities that we can throw out of us, the more room there'll be to be filled by the Spirit of God; long as we can do that.” [Perfect Strength By Perfect Weakness, JEFF IN, 61-1119]

“You've got to get to a place that you know that you're nothing. And don't never rise above it, for as soon as you rise above it, you rise above God. You've got to keep yourself in the dust and on the road to Damascus. You've got to keep yourself off your high horses. And that's for everywhere, here and in the tape world.” [Perfect Strength By Perfect Weakness, JEFF IN, 61-1119]

Featured Questions & Answers

Question

How can a believer have an effective Bible study for their self?

Answer

“You know, people reads the Bible. They, you don't... In reading the Bible, you don't want to just read it just bare like you was reading a newspaper. This Bible is hid from the wise and prudent. I don't care how great your school is, your seminary, you will never know nothing about God, until you get in love with God. You have to read between the lines. It's hid.” [God Perfecting His Church, Binghamton NY, 54-1204]

“Then peace comes into the heart and everything. Then you begin. Then you can really shout like a Christian should shout. Then the speaking with tongues. And then the gifts of the Spirit begins to manifest behind a pure heart, a real foundation. Watch what happens then. Then that's real Holy Spirit. But if you just come up on a little emotion, it'll never work. You'll go right back out and hate. You watch your hearts now, how you'll long to read the Bible. How you'll want to get alone to talk with Him, and say, "O Father, oh, I just love You." That's the fellowship. See? That's what we need.” [Fellowship By Redemption, Jeffersonville IN, 55-0403]

“You know, I told you, you don't read the Bible just like this; you read between the lines. God always writes His love letter... Just like when I write to my wife or she writes to me, we--we know... We mean what we say on the paper, but we love one another so well, we read between the lines. That's the way to get God; don't try to get stiff and starchy and have some degrees put on your name, just love Him real well, He will let you even read between the lines.” [God's Covenant With Abraham, Charlotte NC, 56-0428]

“The entire Bible is set up on revelation. Now, you'll never know the Bible just by some cold hearted reading it. You've got to read the Bible in the Spirit. You've got to be in the mood of reading. You've got to love to read it. And the Bible is written so that the wise, smart, educated, will never understand it. Jesus thanked God and said, "Father, I thank Thee that Thou has hid these things from the wise and the prudent, and will reveal them to babes such as will learn." Oh, I'm so glad of that. You don't have to be somebody in this world to know God. You just have to have a willing heart, and God will go to dealing with that willing heart, if you are willing." [The Lamb And The Dove, Oakland CA, 57-0325]

"There's been men down through the age that has preached from this same text since it was written. And every time we read it, we get something new from it. Any of us, who read the Bible, know that it is such a--a Book; there's nothing like it ever written or ever will be. It is the greatest word of all word. Even the visions are secondarily. If the vision is contrary to what the Word says, then the vision's wrong. God's Word is right all the time." [Hear Ye Him, Waterloo IA, 58-0126]

"He said, "Woman, hear My Words. The hour is coming, and now is, when the Father seeketh those that'll worship Him in the Spirit and the Truth." "Thy Word is the Truth." And every man that'll read the Bible and believe every Word that Bible says, and follow Its instructions, and receive the same Holy Ghost that they received, the same way they received It, same results they received It, same power they got when they received It, he knows Who his Papa and Mama was." [Ephesians Parallels Joshua, Jeffersonville IN, 60-0515e]

"Let's get plumb back off of his territory; let's come back to God; come back to the altar; rebuild the altar again that's been torn down. And build up your home. Take them cards off the table, and all of them old love story magazines. And open up the Bible, and read the Bible, and pray. And just don't get down and say, "Bless my family, Mary, and Joe, and John, and all of them," get in the bed. No, sir. Stay there with God." [Expectations, Richmond VA, 61-0308]

"He is the principal Theme of the entire Bible. If you read the Bible and don't see Christ in every verse of It, go back and read It again. See? If you can't see Christ in every verse of the Bible, then you read It again, because you've missed something. The Bible is Christ. He is the Word. When you read, "In the beginning God created..." there's Christ. See? Every... From that to the "Amen" in Revelations is every Word testifying of Jesus Christ." [Christ Is The Mystery Of God Revealed, Jeffersonville IN, 63-0728]

"He's still the same yesterday, the Word that was, the Word that is, and the Word that is to come. He is all things in the Bible. And if you read the Bible and don't see Jesus, then you better ride back and read that Scripture again. Because This is the testimony of Jesus Christ: Old Testament in type, New Testament fulfilled. Then Jesus is He that was, the history; He that was back, the beginning. The prophecy, He was the prophecy. He was the history. He was the Psalms. He was the Lord Jesus, and He is the things to come, that's in the Bible. So He is, the testimony of Jesus Christ is the Bible. Now, and the Bible is called the Word of God, and God's got to judge the world by some standard. If He put you here with, and going to judge you, then there's got to be some standard." [Investments, Chicago IL, 63-0803b]

"Oh, Dallas, you lovely bunch of Christians, don't be carried away with this stuff today, that you see going around, 'cause it's going to perish. Play that Token always--display that Token. Read the Bible. Come up to everything. And if your spirit in you don't say "amen" to That, then you'd better go back and change that you got for the Token; you haven't got It." [The Token, Dallas TX, 64-0308]

"If you neglect to read the Bible and to believe the Bible, and the Holy Spirit to feed upon That, you'll die. Jesus said in St. John 4:3, the Scripture I got right... Jesus said that, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word," not just part of It. We take a little bit here. I call that a Bible hitchhiker. They say, "Well, I believe This, but now let's go over here. See?" See? You've got to take it Word by Word. Jesus said, "Man shall live by every Word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." [Thirst, Tucson AZ, 65-0919]

Question

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater [works] than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." [John 14:12] What is the greater works that Jesus is referring to in John 14:12?

Answer

"He said, "Well now, in Mark the 16th," said, "Now, the better scholars understand." Said, "Now, the--the illiterate kindy takes the rest of it, but," said, "we know that Mark 16th from the 9th verse on, where He said, they shall cast out devils, and speak with tongues, and lay hands on the sick and things." Said, "We realize; we better scholars know that that part of the Bible is not inspired. It was written by the vatican, and it's not inspired." You know what the Mohammedan said, he said, "It isn't? What kind of a Bible are you reading?" Said, "All the Koran's inspired." That's the weakness of Christianity so-called. He said, "Then what about Mark 11, 'Whatsoever things you desire?' What about this when He said, 'The things that I do shall you also.'" He said, "Well, He said, 'The works that I do...,' Well," he said, "you see, we--we preach the Gospel to all the world." Said,

"That's the greater works." He said, "You have. You've had two thousand years to prove that He's alive, and two thirds of the world never heard His Name." Said, "Let Mohammed raise from the dead and everybody will know it in twenty-four hours." [A Secondhanded Robe Brooklyn, NY 56-1206]

"Now, the fruits of Christ, when He was here on earth, the things that He did when He was here on earth, He promised that they would be done by His church after He left. "The works that I do, shall you do also; greater works than this shall you do; for I go to My Father." Greater, if anyone who knows Greek, knows that that word "greater" doesn't mean that it would be in quality; it means in quantity. Another words it would be, "More than this shall you do," would be the way we would read it. "More than this shall you do, for I go to My Father." Great, because no one could do any greater work than He did; because He raised the dead; He--He stopped nature. He--He done everything that could be done. And He stopped the roaring sea, made the winds be still, raised up the dead after they were done corrupted in the grave, and--and no one could do greater in quality. But being that His Spirit would come into the Church and would reach out, it would be a universal church, all around the world; and they could do more of the same things that He was doing." [Sirs We Would See Jesus Newark, NJ57-1211]

"And at His leaving He said this: "The works that I do shall you do also. Greater works than this shall you do." And the word "greater," anyone knows means "more." You couldn't do any greater in quality, just in quantity, 'cause He was there in one Person. God was rep--was represented in one Person. Now He's represented in the universal Church everywhere. "More than this shall you do, for I go unto My Father. Yet a little while and the world will see Me no more." The world "kosmos" there means that it's the world's order. "The world will see Me no more, yet you shall see Me, for I (A personal pronoun) I'll be with you, even in you to the end of the world." [And Then Jesus Came Newark, NJ57-1213]

"You have to know it by the Spirit. Flesh cannot do those things. What is it? The vine, the branches, the same life that was in the vine comes through His branches. He feeds the branch through His vine. That's how He declares Himself to be the same yesterday, and forever, for He said, "I'm the Vine." The Holy Spirit now, Christ in Spirit form in you, energizing you with His Spirit to believe God, and He's everything that He does, He manifests Himself just like He did in the Bible times. "The works that I do, shall you also. A little while, and the world won't see Me no more (How many knows He said that? That's the unbeliever.), yet ye shall Me (the believer), for I ('I', personal pronoun), I'll be with you, even in you, to the end of the world." Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever. "The works that I do, shall you do also." Now, the word there in King James says, "Greater works than this will you do." But if you'll run that back to the Greek Lexicon, you'll find out that it doesn't mean, "greater," it means "more." You couldn't do greater. He stopped nature; He--He healed the sick; He raised the dead; He--He done things. Well, there could be no more done. But you could do more of it, because He would be in His church as the branch--as the vine in His branches, or whole world around...?... the same thing." [Jesus Christ The Same Yesterday Today And Forever Terre Haute, IN 58-0214]

Date: Friday, December 1, 2006

Thanks so much for the newsletter I just got today. It came at the right time to encourage me. I have been down for two weeks with my back. It has been very bad. As a minister myself it seems very hard to understand but yet I still know who holds tomorrow, and I still know who holds my hand. It is so great to know the Lord. Just pray that my back will get well soon, even tonight I will try to believe that with you and others that are praying, that God will take care of it for me. May the good Lord bless you in every way.

Yours in Christ

Bro. Shelton

🔴 December 02, 2006 - 03:01 PM Ana Paula Muller from United States First of all, I thank God for this wonderful word that we can enjoy in it. This newsletter is very important to me and my family. I can't wait to see the next one. This month of December newsletter really talked to me I can feel that Jesus is leading me to his path and molding me. Being humble is one of the most precious things, because we know where we stand before Jesus and we don't have and don't need to feel big or exalted. Jesus gave us the most precious things in our lives which is his word and our salvation. No money or name can buy it. Just knowing that God love me so much and takes care is enough. Now I can say that I trust God with all my heart.
